Dear Noblezada:

Thank you very much for your nice letter of congratulations and good wishes which arrived here today. It is always a pleasure to hear from some of the old mates on the Concord and from Managua and Panama.

I do hope you are getting along fine and like your station at Kwajalein.

Sincerely,

Rear Adm. R. H. Hillenkoetter USN
Director Central Intelligence Group
Navy Department, Washington, D. C.
Dear Sir:—

Sending my congratulations to you of having attained the rank of Rear Admiral USN. And I do congratulate you again of being named Director of Central Intelligence Group. Hope for your success in your new job.

Warm regards to you.

Respectfully yours,
Juan Hobbeyda

P.S. You will easily remember me when you recollect our being together on board the U.S.S. Concord with Admiral Woodward. Remember also our happy days in Managua, Nicaragua and also in Panama.

Sincerely,
Juan Hobbeyda
